

BIWEEKLY COLLOQUIUM
Monday, 11th of February, 5.00 pm

ROOMS AND THEIR FUNCTIONS:
A HELLENISTIC HOUSE IN MEGARA HYBLAIA
Annette Haug, Kiel University

The talk focuses on a Hellenistic house – the Maison 49,19 – in Megara Hyblaia on Sicily, which is the subject of a current project. The most prominent feature of the house consists in its two courtyards which were different in size and design. In addition, the different rooms of the house have unusual installations. These features will be the starting point for the discussion of room functions on the one hand, and of the general structure of the house on the other.

Venue: Seminar Room 204, Leibnizstraße 1, Kiel University