

Workshop “Castles as European Phenomena“

Venue: Leibnizstraße 1, Room 105 a/b

Thursday, February 11, 2016

Cluster I (9 a.m. - 1 p.m.)

Kossack, Daniel (DE): Castles in Eastern Holstein

Posselt, Normen (DE): Kemladen - late medieval well-fortified pile dwellings in Northern Germany

Bremer, Timo (DE): The Model of the „Adelsburg“ and the Lower Nobility – A Case Study from the Rhineland

Ludwig, Clemens/Uhlig, Tobias (DE): Harras, a late medieval Towerhouse and Settlement in southern Thuringia

Lunch

Cluster II (2:30 p.m. - 6 p.m.)

Lotan, Shlomo (IL): Castles and fortifications in Germany and in the Latin Kingdom of Jerusalem – Mutual relationships and research issues

Losse, Michael (DE): Defences, shelters or symbols of power? Castles, towers and fortified places („kustra“) in the Knights Hospitallers' monastic state in the Aegean (1307-1522)

Alajan, Artur (EE): The Castles of the Teutonic Order in Medieval Livonia (1238-1291)

Ropa, Anastasija (LV): Medieval Castles in Latvia: State of Research and Future Perspective

Joint dinner (7 pm)

Friday, February 12, 2016

Cluster III (9 a.m. - 1 p.m.)

Stanulevich, Nadezhda (RU): Photography of Castles at Museum Collections

Bernardi, Martina (IT): Fortifications in Latium (Italy). The case of Monti Lucretelli

Fenger, Jørgen (DK): A data analysis of the construction of medieval castles in the former counties of Thisted and Hjørring (Denmark)

Magnussen, Stefan (DE): Form follows 'Fürst'? The sites of Valdemar I. and Erik VI. of Denmark and the uses of deduction in castle research.

Closing Debate and End (1 p.m.)

(every cluster includes a coffee break)

Organizers:

Daniel Kossack (dkossack@gshdl.uni-kiel.de)

Stefan Magnussen (smagnussen@gshdl.uni-kiel.de)